Voters Confused On Polling Places But Pass 7.6 to 1 For Hospital Bonds

8,823 voters went to the polls Tuesday (the REVIEW estimated the total to be 9,000 a week before the election) to pass the $800,000 Grossmont Hospital Bond Issue by a ratio of 7.6 to 1.

21% of the district's voters marked their ballots. 7,803 said yes; 1,020 said no.

While the voters exhibited a single mindedness as to their determination to have a hospital, confusion reigned generally concerning voting places. Probably the vote in Lemon Grove would have been heavier if the voters could have found voting places more easily. At one polling place in Rolando Park no mark indicating it as voting place was in evidence. Common complaint was that residents

Reptile Freak Found In Grove

A two-headed king snake is Lemon Grove's newest claim to fame.

"Everything thrives in this vicinity," said Larry Hunter, who found the reptile. 'Even snakes grow twice as many heads."

The snake shown above with a cigarette for comparison is about 15 inches long and according to snake experts is harmless. It was found on the property occupied by Hunter Nursery at 3110 Sweetwater Rd. last week. A mocking bird was making dive bomb attacks on it when it attracted Hunter's attention. The snake still lives in spite of the fact that San Diego Zoo experts claim that it would die in a few days. The Zoo was not intertested in the snake alive, according to Hunter, but wanted it for post mortem study when it finally passes on.

"From the way it is eating it may outlast some of the snakes the Zoo already possesses," Hunter chuckled.

Anyone interested in two-headed snakes may view it any day except Tuesday at the nursery, Hunter said.

AN EDITORIAL

Max Goodwin

The saloon population of Lemon Grove is about to expand again. From an unimpeachable source it has been learned that a large on-sale liquor operation is headed for a prominent spot on Broadway within the shadow of the Golden Avenue Elementary School. The REVIEW has no fault to find with saloons as such. Certainly every person who invests his money in such an establishment is entitled to a fair shake at earning a living or making a profit in such ventures, if that is his choice.

In our idle moments of contemplation about the goings on in Southern California we are faced with news stories of the death of a bistro frequenter, dead as a result of an evening's carousal in a National City bar, and of the youngsters picked up last week near Oceanside charged with drug addiction, the material of which they claim was acquired on Los Angeles "saloon row." And we further contemplate on the sorry state of affairs in a community near Los Angeles, Gardena, which has attracted state-wide attention because of its quantity, if not quality, of saloons and the vices attendent to many such operations.

In a community with too many saloons competition becomes spirited and that attracts an element that can best left for the saloon strip in downown San Diego where adequate police protection is provided.

The REVIEW is not recommending that this on-sale whiskey license be refused since we know better than most people that under the laws existing today there is nothing, absolutely nothing, this community can do to prevent 20 such establishments, much less a single one, from opening.

We do feel, however, that the time is rapidly approaching when the educators, the spiritual leaders, the civic minded individuals and the plain American citizen who wants safe and clean living for his family, to ban together to insist that these laws be changed so that the persons who make up the community might have a voice in its liquor future.

The whole Big Ace family swarmed into Lemon Grove coincident with the breaking of ground for the new super market. Looking over the plans held by E. A. Ries, building contractor, is Jim Bannister, Big Ace president.

In the photograph taken Monday, when work started on the market, are: front row, Ries and Bannister; back row, D. S. (Bill) Haley, vice-president of Big Ace, Kenny Stapp, treasurer of Big Ace, and Bob Shrader, public relations chief for the firm and J. B. Wood, secretary of the firm.

Clanking grading equipment and a swirl of dust mark the first step in the development of Lemon Groves newest and biggest super market this week.

Big Ace Markets, long heralded as headed for Lemon Grove starts on its road to actuality with a target date of April set for the opening of the new development.

Jim Bannister, president of Big Ace Markets, said that he had been negotiating for three years for property to make up the three acre tract on Broadway between Olive and Buena Vista upon whica will be built the super market containing more than 35,000 square feet and providing off street parkking for more than 300 cars.

E. A. Reis, well known contractor said the huge building would follow the modern Southern California motif and the entire area would be surrounded by a low adobe brick wall with palm trees profusely spotted on the outside fringes.

The huge market will have a soft, warm, appearance inside and will be completely air conditioned. Construction will be of cement block and stucco and the

The MASON LINE

WE HOPE EVERY YOUNG person reads, "Heritage of Freedom" a 20 page colored booklet sponsored by the California Teacher Association. The book has been sent to every Junior and Senior High School in California.

It is geared to appeal to young people and concludes with these words, "Ours will be the defense against the aggressions and oppressions of tomorrow. Ours will be the responsibility of carrying on the heritage of freedom, of working at the common heritage of all mankind."

—ML—

DAN APRA, FREEBORN CRES-sy and the writer drove to Santa Monica the other A. M. and made a guess as to just what a visitor to Southern California would think of us.

Remember the beautiful white sandy beach just this side of Huntington Beach? There isn't one square foot of sand which isn't now covered by a tin can or a bottle.

What gives with us anyway? Having lived fifteen years in the East we happen to know that the majority of those Easterners think of Southern California as the most wonderful place in the world to live. What a shock when they arrive and see the litter along our roads and beaches!

—ML—

GUESS YOU HEARD OF THE guy driving down the street with only a steering wheel in his hands? Where's the rest of the car, asks a bystander. Couldn't afford the extras, was the reply.

—ML—

ANOTHER PAT ON THE BACK goes to the Helix Student Body and Football team. Altho hopelessly beaten 26 to 0 with only minutes to go, the Kids never gave up and when Helix scored on the last play of the game, you'd have sworn they had just licked Notre Dame.

—ML—

WE'RE GLAD TO HEAR THAT Helix is now making an effort to form a new league and pull out of the City League entirely. Sweetwater and Chula Vista have outgrown the Metro League but would provide excellent competition for Grossmont, Helix and the new El Cajon High School.

—ML—

NOW THAT BONELLI IS DE-termined to hand us a saloon for each 1000 population in the County, the race is on for choice spots in the Grove. Now if we can open up a gaming hall or two we can step right out and corral the carriage trade which Tijuana now gets!

Fireman Given Coffee Urn By Auxiliary

The Fire Department is the proud possessor of a new coffee urn presented by the Women's Auxiliary who earned it the hard way. They sold shampoo preparations to all who would buy until they had enough amassed to purchase the urn. The presentation was made October 13, at a business meeting.

The Auxiliary announced their intention to cooperate with the Spring Valley Auxiliary in their annual fund raising turkey dinner, which is scheduled for Friday, Nov. 6th at Spring Valley School Auditorium.

At the October 13th meeting home baked pies and cookies were served by the members.

Mrs. Betty Tilton and Mrs. M. Hensley were hostesses.

Ice Cycles' To Be 'Extravagant'

Costumes for the Ice Cyles of 1954, starting Nov. 5th at Glacier Garden, make up one of the most extravagantly costumed ice show ever produced, according to the show's owner.

Costumes, he said, for "Brigadoon," this year's special presentation took more than $22,000 in material alone. He says that final production costs on the entire show will run well over $300,000.

Tickets are on sale now at Glacier Gardens.

JUST FOR FUN!

DICK HAYMES, L. A. CROONER, asked if his bride is a good cook. "Who marries Rita Hayworth for cooking?"

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DOROTHY DONOHOE, BAKERSFIELD, "I've been a taxpayer since I was 16, and I believe in helping people who can't help themselves , and that's all."

J. O. JEWETT, SOLANO PUBLISHER—"The bridegrooms in some movie weddings look so sad you'd swear it was the real thing."

JUDY CANOVA, HOLLYWOOD ACTRESS—"I'm for girdles. They can't change what you've got, but they can get it back to where it will do the most good."

Davis Produce Attracts Carancho Street Family

"I shop at Davis for the same reasons that most of my neighbors do. Partly because of low prices but mostly because I like their produce. It is always nice and clean and fresh."

And a pretty picture of contentment Mrs. Martin Moses makes, too, as she shops in Davis Food Center produce department with her one year old son, Jimmy.

Mrs. Moses lives at 3871 Carancho. Her husband is superintendent-inspector at Ryan Aircraft.

More and more residents in the Foothills area are turning to Davis Food Center for their family grocery needs for the same reasons as Mrs. Moses. The familiar Davis trailer-trucks running regularly between the local ranches and the Davis Market is testimony to the freshness of the produce.

A recently enlarged parking area is another attractive feature of the market. —ADV.

He also said that the civilian defense organization is intended to function in helping in the nation's defense but also in case of any possible local disaster, either fire, earthquake, flood or anything of similar nature. We hope such services are never needed here or elsewhere but we can rest easier if we are prepared in advance.

When school children from the district gather this weekend for the annual Hallowe'en Carnivals sponsored by local P-TA units, boys and girls from the junior high will have the opportunity to visit one or more of the four carnivals held at the elementary schools. Because present construction at the Junior High prevents the Lemon Grove School P-TA holding a regular carnival this year for seventh and eighth graders, the unit will have a booth at each of the other school sites. These booths, manned by personel from the junior high unit, will attempt to feature that which is of special interest for teenagers.

Headed by John Wright, carnival chairman for the junior hi, the booths will include a taco stand at Vista La Mesa. Others wil feature games. School patrons who wish to assist the P-TA in this venture are asked to donate small prizes for the game booths. These may be sent to the junior high or they will be picked up if those who wish to donate will phone the school at H6-6951.

Fall Day Institute Attracts Local Teachers

Several teachers and administrators from the Lemon Grove School District took an active part in the planning and action of the Fall-Day Institute afternoon sessions held all last week at La Mesa Junior High and Helix High School. In the secondary field, S. K. Solleder acted as discussion leader in a home-school relations discussion, junior high level. Ben I. Schei was a resource person for this section. Evelyn Whalen was a resource person for the section dealing with the use of current materials in junior high schools.

At the elementary level, Evelyn Lauritzen led a third grade discussion group dealing with school and community relations. Robert Sutton led the fourth grade group in a discussion of mass communication media. Leota Holcomb, Grace Burks and Emma Tait served as resource people for a section meeting dealing with arts, music and crafts and evaluations.

All teachers in the district had the opportunity to hear Dr. Lawrence Derthick, superintendent of schools in Chatanooga, deliver an address during the morning session of the Institute held in San Diego. Teachers of the junior high enjoyed a luncheon downtown before proceeding to the Grossmont district section groups.

M. H. Ladies Lend Beauty To Carnival

A preview of the carnival air that will pervade the Monterey Heights PTA Hallowe'en Party scheduled for the Monterey School Playgrounds, Saturday, is shown by the group of four attractive Monterey Heights young ladies who pose for the above picture.

In the photograph are women who will take part in the carnival. They are Mrs. William Woodard, 1786 Colfax Dr., Mrs. Joe Fischer, 8102 Alton Dr., Mrs. J. S. Durham, 2315 Cypress St., and Mrs. Durham's daughter, Kathy Joe, who looks upon the group, mother especially, quizzically.

This year each school in the elementary system will hold its own carnival. Indications are that when the junior high school and its grounds are completed future carnivals will be held en masse as one great, gala event.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor,
Lemon Grove Review:

This letter would never have been written had it not been for a neighbor who takes her dog walking and sees all in the process. We were talking one day when with some heat she exclaimed, "Why don't you do something about it? The citizens of Lemon Grove should be ashamed of the litter that lines the streets. It's a disgrace."

For some weeks now that same thought had been flickering in the back of my brain as it has doubtless been in the brains of many, many others living in and looking at Lemon Grove. We ask people to come to have lemonade and look at the tallest Christmas tree and for other reasons. Then without thought display a large dose of poor townhousekeeping.

(During the summer five girls ranging in age from 5 to 11 years picked up some eighteen cartons of paper, bottles, cans, etc. from a block strip along the railroad tracks.)

There must be some solution, one in which all can have a hand. First, it seems to be a matter of personal education for each person old and young to learn not to carelessly flick that scrap to earth but to consider this earth as an outside living room and treat it with some respect.

Would a Lemon Grove Clean-up Week make us all more conscious, a week in which all the older and younger Service clubs including the Teen-agers, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, with the help of the merchants and the forecful word of the teachers to their classes, all join together to clean up. Let's join together not only to clean up, but to keep the clean-up.

Mrs. F. A. Carr,
3210 Main St.

Keep Youngsters Off Street Saturday, Is Plea

The San Diego County Traffic Safety Council today recommended Hallowe'en parties planned to prevent youngsters from roaming the streets after dark.

Parents were warned that many of the traditional masks worn with costumes interefere with vision and make crossing streets dangerous for children.

Some pointers on child safety from the Council are to have something white or reflectorized on the child's costume, to instruct children to cross streets only at crosswalks and to watch carefully for approaching autos and "most important," said Lyle Shoemaker, director of Traffic Safety Council, "is a warning to motorists to be on the lookout for excited children."

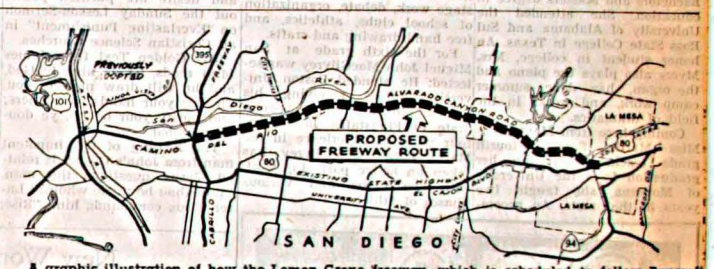
Friday night the Highlanders will meet the bruising Kearney eleven on the Hoover High gridiron.



A graphic illustration of how the Lemon Grove freeway, which is scheduled to follow Bancroft Rd. to Grossmont Summit, will tie in with the Master Freeway Plan can be seen from the above map.

A newly proposed plan of re-routing Highway 80 (El Cajon Blvd.) traffic along Camino del Rio and Alvarado Canyon Rd. which would join up with El Cajon Blvd. at La Mesa, which in turn hooks up with the Lemon Grove freeway at Grossmont Summit so that it becomes an interlinking chain of freeways, will smooth the flow of traffic into and out of the entire Foothills area.

The State Highway Commission last week adopted the Bancroft Dr. line of freeway linkage between Highway 94 (Broadway in Lemon Grove) and Highway 80 (El Cajon Blvd.) against the opposition of some La Mesa organizations.

Opponents of the Bancroft section proposed a route which would bring the linkage out at a point east of El Cajon but the Bancroft section, a six lane-2.2 miles stretch, will prevent long cutbacks of traffic by forming the juncture at Grossmont Summit.

Another newly proposed route to be made a freeway is the seven mile strip east from Grossmont Summit which would bypass the business district of El Cajon to the north and end at Tunnel Hill.

The Lemon Grove section from Home Ave., in San Diego, to Campo Rd., an eight lane freeway rerouting Highway 94, was approved by the Commission several months ago.

Meanwhile right-of-way men are buying properties in the Lemon Grove area aimed against a beginning date for the new freeway of spring 1954, with completion due in the fall 1955.

Highway officials pointed out that the purchasing picture would not change materially from week to week as the process of survey, evaluating, and purchasing is a tedious and drawn out process.

Engineers are now working in the American Homes area, working west toward the North Avenue area.

Lemon Grove Unit Of League Of Women Voters Planned

A chance for Lemon Grove women to take a more important part in local and national affairs is being made possible with plans to form a local unit of the League of Women Voters, it was announced this week by Mrs. Charles D. McKenzie, 8035 Darryl St.

Earlier this week a meeting was held in La Mesa for that purpose.

The League of Women Voters is a national, non-partisan organization whose purpose is to encourage all citizens to take an active part in their government.

As a local group forms unit meetings will be held twice a month throughout the year. Members will be able to obtain facts, pool ideas in discussion groups, and take information to the community thru League publications, thru public forums, radio programs, films and newspaper stories; act together in urging local, state and national governments to adopt measures which the League supports.

Membership is open to all women of voting age.

Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. McKenzie at H9-2916.

In the first grade is Miss Mary Ann Schroeder, who holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Iowa. She has has fine teaching experience while attending college, and this is her first regular assignment. Before coming to Lemon Grove, Mrs. Stone taught in San Diego City schools. She has done library work and is interested in Girl Scout counseling.

Mrs. Ann Myers, who teaches a combination second and third grade at the school, holds both a Bachelors and Masters degree in education. She attended the University of Alabama and Sul Ross State College in Texas. An honor student in college, Mrs. Myers also plays the piano and the organ, has done summer camp work, and works in the field of dramatics.

For the sixth grade at San Miguel John MacGilvrey was selected. He atended Boston University before receiving his Bachelors degree from Arizona State at Flagstaff. Beside his four years of experience in the Marine Corps, MacGilvrey has taken an active part in work with boys' clubs and various phases of athletics.

San Miguel Hallowe'en Party To Offer Costume Prizes

San Miguel School will have its first Hallowe'en Carnival Saturday at the school grounds.

Ted Magnusson, Chairman; Mrs. A. Lizama, Co-Chairman; assisted by Mr. Robert Sutton, Mrs. H. T. Espe, Mrs. W. B. Bickerton, Jr. and all the Room Mothers, have spent many hours and much thought to bring to the children of this school a great time, come the evening of spooks and witches.

At 5:30 p. m. a parade of costumed children will be the beginning of the evening. Prizes will be awarded for the most original costume.

Each grade will have a booth, and, with the supervision of teacher, will decorate the outside of their booth.

Food, prepared by the P. T. A. Board Members, will make it possible to have your dinner amid the gayety; hamburgers, hot dogs, chili beans and potato chips. Be sure to bring the appetite. There will be plenty for all. Hot coffee and cold drinks for the thirsty.

Under the supervision of Mr. Magnusson, many of the fathers worked together building the booths.

The Chamber of Commerce has loaned us the Christmas lights.

Costumes will be worn by parents and teachers working in the booths.

This is our first Carnival. Join us to make it a success.

Golden PTA Hallowe'en Party To Feature Doll's Clothes

Parents, teachers, and friends are welcomed to the annual Golden Ave. P. T. A. Hallowe'en Carnival, Saturday, 5 p. m. at the school playground.

No need to worry about the evening meal, your family may have their fill of chili, beans, tacos, coffee, and all the foods that make up a carnival.

Feature of this year's carnival is the doll clothes booth whose chairman, Mrs. I. D. Wilder, has assembled a complete selection of "wardrobes for the most discriminating doll, at modest prices too.

The parade begins at 6 p. m., after which, the children may redeem their coupons given by the school, for tickets to enjoy the carnival.

Everlasting Punishment Christian Science Lesson Topic

Penalties inherent in sin and fear are destroyed as thought and desire are purified points out the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on 'Everlasting Punishment" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text from James (4:8) reads, 'Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded."

The healing of the impotent man from John's Gospel is related. Jesus questions the man, "Wilt thou be made whole?" Later Jesus commands him, "Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed. and walked." (John 5:6,8,9).

New Wonder Fabrics

Out of the chemical laboratories today are coming a host of man-made fibers bringing high standards of serviceability and good looks into the home for carpets, drapery materials and upholstery fabrics.

One of these wonder fibers playing a prominent role in the recently revived textile field is saran, a versatile plastic material derived from petroleum and brine. Long familiar to the consumer in the form of automobile seat covers and window screening, it now greets the home-making field in colorful, long-wearing fabrics that are easily cleaned and resistant to fire, moisture, mildew and mold.

No need for worry about color as each fine fiber is solidly colored all the way through. A depth of beauty and permanent color results from pre-coloring of the basic raw material.

The inherent toughness of these fabrics stems from the smooth round saran fibers that do not tend to catch and hold gritty dirt particles that can set up an abrasive, shearing action harmful to the life of a fabric.

Nothing seems to be able to penetrate the fibers, either, as such stains as shoe polish, ink, catsup, mustard and iodine are removed in a jiffy by simply wiping with a cloth and warm, soapy water.

Thanks to these remarkable new fibers such as saran, the living room is no longer "off-limits" during playtime!

"I still say that this comes under the heading of housework."

Wood Floors Eventually Need Work; Here Are Tips on Reconditioning

Occasionally—depending on the finish, amount of maintenance and traffic—wood floors need reconditioning. The photographs below give pointers from Home Modernizing Magazine on how to proceed.

Sink protruding nail heads with hammer and nail set, then fill holes; eliminate squeaks by nailing to joist nearest the squeaks.

Next, sand the floor with a drum-type sander; make first strokes at an angle to the boards, the second strokes at right angles to first.

"You can't lose your shirt, if your sleeves are rolled up for work," reports Fred Scheneman of Fred's Auto Shop.

"The future is changing," laments Morgan Ames, theatre operator. "It gets here a lot quicker than it used to."

Ruth Waggoner Honored

A Lemon Grove girl has been chosen to give the keynote speech at the Annual District Girl Scout Program, Sunday.

Ruth Waggoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Waggoner, 8335 Imperial, was named winner of an essay contest, theme of which was "World Friendship." The speech will be part of a "Scout Own" program at the La Mesa Junior High School at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. A. R. Sharp, 4180 Blackton Dr., program chairman for Lemon Grove and the entire district, said the program has been planned by the girls of the district from neighborhood representatives at an all District Girl Planning Board. Representatives from Lemon Grove were Pat Kenny and Pamela Sharp.

Ruth is a fourth grade Golden Avenue student and is an active member of Brownie Troop 475.

Woman's Club Backs Civil Defense

Taking the floor last Friday after Dr. Frank Gigliotti's forceful discourse on Civil Defense, Mrs. David Hentigan, president of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club urged "let's all get behind Dr. Gigliotti and put this thing across."

Dr. Gigliotti, Zone Warden for the Lemon Grove area, concluded with the tribute "when one wants a job well done, he sees that a woman does it."

Mrs. Hentigan announced her plans to obtain funds for this year's project of the National Federation of Women's Clubs which is the restoration of Independence Hall.

Mrs. Hal Crow requested donations for the forthcoming rummage sale while Mrs. H. J. Warner added emphasis to her announcement of the November 20th potluck supper and card party by holding a cleverly contrived sign designating the time and place.

Following a group of piano arrangements by James Goodwin, tea and refreshments were served with Mrs. A. E. Codina and Mrs. Arthur Scheid pouring.

Says Freeborn Cressy, operator of our town's junior department store, "They're always telling me things about themselves that I intended to tell them about my-

Mrs. O. V. Brandt is the leader.

Six surrounding communities will take part in the program.

"You can never right selfishness by self righteousness."

Local speakers could profit by Woodrow Wilson's wisdom, according to Mack Dailey, operator of Monterey Heights Variety Store. Asked how long it would take him to prepare a ten-minute speech, he said two weeks. For an hour's speech, one week. For a two-hour speech — "I'm ready now," he said.

"If you are a fool, you demand authority," says Judge Luther Hussey. "If you are a smart man you already have it.'

Ten-year-old Mary Jean Frankel will be youngest competitor in third annual Los Angeles International Horse Show, set Nov. 13-22 at Pan-Pacific Auditorium. She's just starting over barrier.

"Highland Lads And Lassies"

Bob Turnbull
H6-6182

Maybe our football team isn't the City Leagues champs, or one can't say they're the most to say the least, but one can say that they sure the heck try to be. Among some of Helixs football talent are many local "Grove" lads, some being: Bob Lebb, Henry Bonilla, Sonny Beyer, Karl Jordan, Bernie Svalstad, Dick Dedrick, Jerry Jinnett, Brian Herald, Ron McQuire, Lloyd Perkins, Ron Svalstad, Tom McCabe, Melvin Robinson and Dan Ahrensburg.

Th's article isnt my sport's article, but this does pertain to our "Highland Lads and Lassies" —so heres more. Helix High's '52 record—we beat Swee water, 7-0; we tied Hamilton, 6-6; we lost to San Diego 7-33; we lost to La Jolla, 12-20; we lost to Grossmont, 7-14; we beat P: Loma 28-7; we beat Kearney, 24-7; we lost to Hoover, 21-24 and we beat St. Agustine, 39-13.

An interview of a song-leader: Lulu Doud—peppy song-leader — senior — plans to go to business college — undecided future — favorite class is English IV — She's on the Hi-Debber Board of Directors — also on the Pep Committee — her pastime is a certain blonde football player from Grossmont — likes to listen to Stan Kenton — her favorite food is Pizza and Liver 'n Onions — thinks the school is really great — also thinks the school spirit is the same — figures the team to come in fourth.

An after game party was given at the home of Nancy Mercer, a Grossmonter, a week or so ago. Many Highlanders and Foothillers were raidin the joint.

Tops in 'pops at Helix: "Ebb Tide," "You, You, You," "Vaya Con Dios," "Rags to Riches," "Crying in the Chapel," "Oh," "Dragnet," "Sweet Mama Tree Top Tall," "Eh Cumpari" "Pink Shampoo." Top classic this week "Pines of Rome." Week's leading speciality: "St. George and the Dragonet" and the flip side, "Little Blue Riding Hood."

Ruth Ann Almost Delivered On Kelly Doorstep

Mrs James Kelly, 1766 Colfax Dr., did her share in upholding Lemon Grove's claim to rapid population growth. Rather than make the long ride into Naval Hospital she gave birth to her second daughter ,Ruth Ann, at 1:29 a. m. Tuesday at home.

Far away in Korea, serving with the Navy, James Kelly, father of Ruth Ann, was completely unaware of the confusion and excitement which ensued.

Mrs. Kelly has been living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Everett, who assisted in the delivery. Both mother and baby's good condition today can be accredited to Mr. Everett's on the spot aid and subsequent blood transfusion at Naval Hospital for despite difficulties encountered with RH blood factor, both baby and mother are doing fine.

The Kellys have another daughter, Sheryl, aged 17 months.

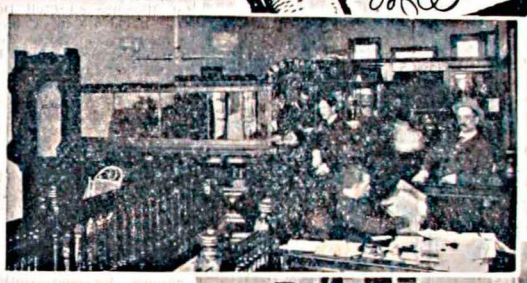
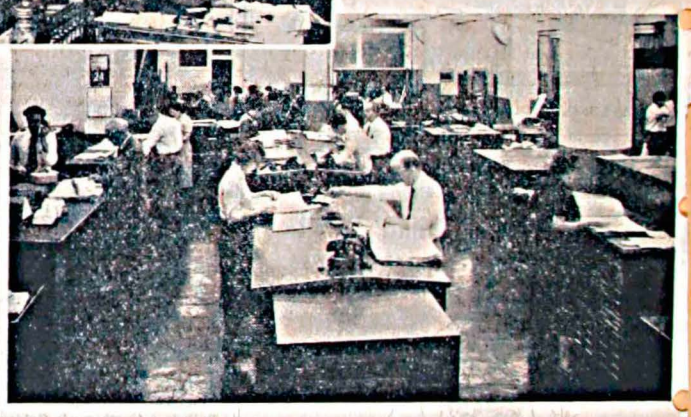
"All our past acclaims our future" —Swinburne

50th Anniversary established 1875 incorporated 1903



Early day property buyers received a laboriously hand-written "abstract of title," giving a mere record of the previous owners. The Reed and Burt Abstract Co., whose offices are pictured here, was founded in the '70s. Later, it was combined with several other leading abstractors to form Union Title Insurance and Trust Company.



Today, property owners enjoy real financial protection in the form of title insurance, based upon a modern title plant, where every transaction affecting land titles is scientifically recorded and indexed. Here is one corner of San Diego's largest and most complete title plant—at Union Title Insurance and Trust Company.

You are invited to visit our lobby display—"San Diego In Pictures—1870 to 1953." Open every weekday from 9:00 am to 4:30 pm.

Have you ever tried to sum up a long story in one cleanly cut phrase? If you have, you'll know it isn't easy to do!

We at Union Title faced that vexing problem on September 25, 1953. That day marked the 50th anniversary of our incorporation—a day which set us to remembering.

We wanted to share with you something of the satisfaction and excitement of that day. The satisfaction that came as we recalled the tremendous growth which has taken place in San Diego County during the past 50 years, growth which we have been privileged to share. The excitement that came because the bright history of San Diego County holds the still brighter image of what is yet to come for all of us.

We wanted to salute all of you, our friends, who have invested your time, your money, and your dreams in San Diego County . . because our time and money and dreams are invested here along with yours.

In short, we sought a phrase which would glow anywhere in the world and tell how we feel about our firm and our county. Oddly enough, a British poet of the last century anticipated us and said it best of all: "All our past acclaims our future."

Pt. Loma-26; Helix-6. Helix lost its second city prep league fotball game last Friday nite beneath the light of San Diego State's Aztec Bowl. While San Diego State was away pounding L. A. City College, 40-13; Helix was busy absorbing a loss from Pt. Loma's fired-up Pointers. Pt. Loma steamed into Aztec Bowl, a little before eight, anxious to get revenge after their salughter from Helix last year. The game was good and the spirit was great, especially the spirit part for Helix. As usual Helix students and parents outnumbered their foes for the rooting section. It is already well known that Helix has one of the best rooting sections in So. Calif. A couple incidents throughout the grid duel made Helix a little happier, anyhow. Fullback Karl Jordan's last second touchdown and the ever-great half-time specialties on the part of Helix.

Karl Jordan, Fullback, still reins as the City's top scoring leader. (Helix'er of course.) Karl has four touchdowns, two P. A. T.'s., and a total of 26 over the next man; Johnson of San Diego, who has a total of 18.

City League Football Standings: Kearny (2-0), San Diego (2-0), Hoover (2-1), La Jolla (1-1), Helix (1-2), Pt. Loma (1-2) and Grossmont (0-3).

Metro League Football Standings: Chula Vista (4-0), Oceanside (4-0), Sweetwater (4-0), Escondido (1-2-1), Vista (1-2-1), San Dieguito (1-3), Coronado (0-4) and Mar Vista (0-4).

(This week I think it wise to remain silent on my predictions, until I get a chance to compare notes-last week I was only off a total of 98 points).

Tonite (Friday) Helix plays host to an unbeaten Kearny '11' at Hoover stadium. Helix's records are: Riverside 13, Helix 6; La Jolla 13, Helix 0; Grossmont 7, Helix 32; Pt. Loma 26, Helix 6. Kearny's records: two wins before league play and Pt. Loma 7. Kearny 27; St. Augustine 0, Kearny 13; Hoover 0, Kearny 6.

entire property will be landscaped. An entrance will be made of cement block and stucco and the entire property will be landscaped. An entrance will be made through an unusal tower sign tunnel leading off Broadway. Reis said that he expected to have the building under roof soon after the first of the year.

Bannister said that there will be five complete departments other than groceries, meats and vegetables. A huge sandwich bar, bake shop and package liquor store is expected to be among the five.

According to Bannister employment for 100 to 125 people will be given. An annual payroll of more than $400,000 will result. The new one-stop market is expected to attain yearly sales of about $4,000,000.

"Many market innovations and new ideas wil be integrated into the new project,' Bannister said. "We will make it a place that will lend excitement and pleasure to family shopping. We will give S. & H. Green Stamps with every purchase," he pointed out.

Bil Haley, vice-president of the firm, said that they had been eyeing Lemon Grove for all of the three years but inability to achieve the needed property plus the economic pains of a fast expanding organization had prevented it until now.

Kenneth Stapp, treasurer, said the "Ace Markets started in 1947 as a fair sized independent market operation with sales of $67,000 for the first year. At present, he pointed out, the yearly average is $4,000,000. The company started in a store 50 by 25 feet and through the years have bought, owned, operated and sold four markets."

At present the company operates two markets, one on Garnet St. in Pacific Beach and the other on Chatsworth in Point Loma.

"Other stores are planned after the Lemon Grove market is completed," stated Robert Shrader, public relation chief for the firm.

Bannister said that it is his policy to have executives connect with local markets to take an active part in civic affairs of the communities they serve. "That policy will be in force in Lemon Grove," he said. "Lemon Grove is a progressive community, one of the most virile we have served and has great business possibilities. We want our executives and representatives to aid and take part in that growth."

Land and building will be owned by the Ace Market Corporation and the Bannister family.

Pansies And Violas For Winter Color In Lemon Grove

Color in the garden when winter rain and cold make pleasant gardening impossible is the reward to the prudent gardener who plants his bed of pansies or border of violas now. Color that lasts, color that is rich, warm and exciting-color that rewards when color in the garden is at a premium, especially here in Lemon Grove.

Pansies and violas are top favorites for winter bloom for the very good reason that they produce good color in good quantity during the most adverse season of the year. They are cool weather plants that thrive in practically all parts of California during the winter months.

Beds for pansy and viola must be raised to provide good drainage as these plants will not tolerate continual wet feet. They require steady applications of high dosages of fertilizer and prefer a light sandy loam soil enriched with generous applications of peat moss or steer manure.

Pinching back about once a month to maintain busy compact growth and to encourage horizontal growth will help to keep the planting attractive and full. Regular spraying to control aphids and red spider is also conducive to better plants and a much longer prime blooming period.

Pansy and viola rank as one of the best bets for utility and availability as all leading nurseries carry these two items at this time of the year.

NAME IT & WIN

coupon which contestants may use if they wish. A month's supply of groceries with a cash value of $50 will be given for the name accepted. A group of prominent businessmen will be judges.

The give-away does not end with the naming of the market, however, the market owners stated. There will be food baskets and free merchandise coincident with the new opening. All prizes and gifts, they pointed out, would be in groceries and comestible things.

When the new enlongated market opens it will cover about five times the floor space of the former market which was on the corner. Hammerstein said that business has grown so well and steadily that they were literally pushed out of their former market building.

The new building is California redwood, ranch type in style, and will house a complete market. The former market featured mostly produce and vegetables but the new market will have a complete grocery line including a large butcher shop. Ease of parking and accessibility by way of one of the community's major crossroads contributed to the need for enlarged quarters.

The name contest which is already under way, will close when the market opens. The winner will be announced as soon afterwards as possible.

It is not necessary to use the coupon in the paper to enter. Any entry is acceptable as long as it is written and if it contains the name of the entrant.
